

Mallory Gibson joins Presidio Investors as Vice President of Investor Relations and Business Development

Austin, TX, May 13, 2019 - Presidio Investors (“Presidio”), a lower middle-market buyout firm, is pleased to announce that Mallory Gibson has joined the team in the newly-opened Austin, Texas office as Vice President of Investor Relations and Business Development. Prior to joining Presidio Investors, Mallory was on the Capital Introduction team at Wells Fargo, where she oversaw the team’s emerging manager initiative and was responsible for covering allocators and hedge funds across Texas and the Southeast. Previously, she was a part of the Investment Talent Development group at Point72 Asset Management, where she managed the sourcing and assessment process of all equity long/short portfolio managers and analysts within the Energy and Industrials sectors, as well as of all the investment professionals in the firm’s non-equity strategies. Mallory began her career at Goldman Sachs, where she spent over six years in the prime brokerage business across the Sales, Consulting, and Capital Introduction teams. She holds a Bachelors in Business from the University of Texas at Austin, and is a CAIA charterholder.

Karl Schade, Presidio’s Managing Partner, says “We are excited to have Mallory join our firm and believe she is an ideal fit for the culture we are building at Presidio. Her experience and expertise will allow her to make significant contributions to our continued growth and long-term vision.”

About Presidio Investors

Presidio Investors is a private equity firm founded in 2007 to pursue control buyout investments in the lower middle market. The principals of Presidio have over two decades of experience making private investments in small and mid-sized service companies, predominantly in North America. Presidio’s investment approach centers on acquiring majority positions in profitable companies and partnering with entrepreneurs and executives to create long-term value through organic growth and acquisitions. The team targets growth companies in niche markets, with a particular focus on companies within the Technology, Media, and Financial Services sectors. The entire Presidio Investors team has substantial operating experience and works side-by-side with management teams to help achieve the best possible outcome for all stakeholders.
